

10 February 1964

Ch/GG/X

Implications of Soviet Worldwide Collection of Terrestrial Data.

To prepare a brief statement on the subject for use by the Clandestine Services either to discourage key personnel in underdeveloped countries from succumbing to Soviet aid offers involving field surveys, or, failing that, to try to force a release of Soviet terrestrial data and maps to international organizations.

AF/2, DD/P

ASAP

69.1911 I

GB 64-6 A rectangular stamp with illegible text inside, located to the right of the handwritten number.